“ The last time I saw Peggy was over a month ago when she gave me her blue sofa. My son, grandson and nephew put the other couch in her living room. We talked about the Mobley family being one of the families that helped start the Piedmont CH church on Hughes Street. We laughed about going to the Piedmont Campground and me being one of the teenagers that picked at her when she was a little girl. She will be missed! I am assured of one of many things, she no longer has to use a walker, cane nor wheel chair and is probably enjoying Heaven, seeing Jesus face-to-face! May the Lord comfort Family and Friends knowing they will see her again!
