“ Knowing Phillip for over 20 years has been a pleasure he has been a big part of my life as my Father in Law. He was a great man funny, hard working, and a man of his word! I will never forget all the times me and him cooked dressing, casseroles and canned together he wanted to use every ingredient in the kitchen we had alot of good times together. I Love him and miss him!

“ Eight years ago when I met Phillip I weighed over 300 pounds. I started walking at the track with he and Buddy and over the years lost 150 pounds. His wonderful sense of humor and encouragement will never be forgotten. He was and always will be a special person in my life. He loved his wife and family and I know what he meant to them.I loved him and will miss him terribly.
