“ He was the sweetest man. So funny & such a jokester always making everyone laugh. He was also so caring & so dedicated to praying for everyone & he would help you anyway he could if possible. On Wednesday nights we'd laugh at each other about all the sweets we'd put on our plates. On Sunday mornings he'd be the first one to give me a big ole bear hug. He could always make me laugh even if I didn't wanna laugh. Oh my goodness how he loved his bride. I've never heard a man speak of his wife as lovingly as Ronny always did. He was so proud of her & always bragged on her, & oh how he loved his family & Colby. Things around our Church will never feel the same, but I know he'll always be there in spirit with us. I'll sure miss him chasing me around the parking lot scaring me on Halloween. He & Jim were good at that... There will never be another one like my friend Ronny! RIP my friend till we meet again. You'll live in our hearts always.
