“ I did not now of Tammy's passing until yesterday. Her ex husband call me and gave me the news I was/am still in shock. We were very close friends, almost like sisters One of the sweetest women you would have ever met. I love you Miss Tammy and I knew you loved me too. We had a lot of laughs together, I am so sorry you became sick, I just wish I had of known. God Bless you and your family. Send us a sign to let us know your happy in your real home, the same home I will be one day. We can laugh and tell all our stories all over again. You were the sweetest person I had ever met. She would have given the shirt off her back to someone if they needed it. Rest in Peace.
