“ Uncle Walt was my Godfather and my brothers spent a lot of time with him both at his home in Toledo and at the lake in Indiana. He would leave his dentures on the dining room table and he would grab them and chase us around the house laughing the whole time. When I was older my dad, Grandpa, and Uncle Jim took me salmon fishing with them on Lake Michigan. The motor on his boat was acting up so he decided that we better head back in. For some reason everyone except for me ended up getting motion sickness leaving me to get the boat back to the ramp. That was the first trip up there that we caught fish. I'll miss him for the rest of my life. For now rest in peace Uncle Walt ❤️❤️❤️

“ Uncle Walt always had a smile on his face. I have lots of great memories of summers filled with camping, boating and fishing. And then of course the many holiday celebrations with the whole family. He was well loved and loved well in return. For Aunt Karen and Dawn and family--I hope your sorrow soon fades, he will always be with you in your hearts and memories. Love, Rich and Cindy and family.
