He then served with distinction with the U.S. Army during the Korean War, upon his discharge, he returned home to his beloved Cherokee County to marry his high school sweet-heart and to live the rest of his life. He was employed by Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company for over 30 years and retired in 1985 to enjoy his true passions, his family, his community and the outdoors. As an outstanding high school athlete, his love of athletics and the thrill of competition kept him involved in all kinds of sports long after most men would have hung up their cleats. He enjoyed nothing more than watching his grandchildren participate in sporting activities. He was an avid hunter and nature lover and was known regionally for breeding the best hunting dogs. Wayne made numerous special friends through his involvement in the Red Fox and Buckeye Hunting Clubs. Nothing brought him more fun than his fellowship with his hunting buddies and the sound of his dogs on the hunt. As his health declined over the last several years, Wayne was sustained and surrounded by the love and support of his family and the devoted care given to him by the love of his life, Betty. Wayne Max Sewell loved the Lord, loved his family and friends and loved his country. A true man's man, he said what he meant and meant what he said. He will be missed by all who knew him. We have lost a good one.
