“ When my parents, Buddy and Ellen McCrary, first moved to Stillwaters in Dadeville, AL, Bill was their pastor at Red Ridge UMC. They fell in love with him and the whole family. When my husband, Brian, and I moved to Weiss Lake in Centre AL, Bill was our pastor at Centre First UMC. It was so neat to make that connection. Our friendship continued over the years, Bill was always so kind. A favorite memory of mine is when Mom came to visit me in Centre, Bill drove over from Gadsden to have lunch with her. That made her day :-) She was so excited to see him again and reminisce about their friends at Red Ridge. You will be missed but we know we will see you again one day.
