“ Bro. Cebo, we are so sorry for your loss. Sis. Helen was a wonderful lady, and she will be missed. I wrote this a few years back for a friend that passed away. I wanted to share it with you at this time. If I had known If I had known that the last time I saw you would be the last time Iâ€™d see you: I would have lingered a little longer, and I would have looked back as I walked away. If I had known that the last time we hugged would be the last time weâ€™d hug: I would have held on a little tighter, and a whole lot longer. If I had known that the last time we kissed would be the last time weâ€™d kiss: I would have kissed both cheeks, and I would have done it over and over again. If Iâ€™d known that the last time I looked into your eyes would be the last time Iâ€™d look into your eyes: I would have looked a little deeper, and never looked away. But I didnâ€™t know that our last would be our last, For God knew, that if I knew, I would have never let you go. by Janice Ledford

“ Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same. Those we love don't go away, They walk beside us every day, Unseen, unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed and very dear. Mrs. Mobbs will always be in our hearts. Rest in Peace Mrs. Mobbs and heartfelt condolences to her dear family.
